; of them, with their standards and artillery, has been tured. am marching to get behind Ulm. Each day becomes e critical, and if the enemy make a few mistakes, the sequences may be disastrous.
Co Marshal Soult.) Lannes' grenadiers will not stop they reach Zusmarshausen, and to-night I shall move bet's division according to the reports that reach me •re %wo o'clock. Allow no halts, and make up your d to move night and day until you have captured r main body. The least you can send me is 3000 or ) prisoners.
th. (To Prince Murat.) I have ordered d'Hautpoul Vertingen. I shall sleep at Augsburg with the Guard, ire I expect Marshal Soult has already arrived. Cut main road from Augsburg to TJlm; push General Ither between Augsburg and Landsberg, and place rshal Lannes so that if Augsburg is attacked at day-ik his three divisions could get there. Oth, Zusmarshausen:
'he weather has broken, there is much rain. The fight Wertingen is very creditable to the dragoons and cavalry. It's a minor success, and very gratifying *lurat, who was in command. I hold the enemy sur-aded at Ulm; they were defeated last night by Ney's )S.
Jo army has ever marched with greater good will, dash, . confidence.

!"he Emperor reviewed the dragoons at Zusmarshausen. ordered Marcate, of the 4th dragoons, who is one of